We will see a delightful presentation of our history. Imagine the fun you'll have traveling down Memory Lane with the Blues people and events of the past 20 years. Two groovin' Blues bands will entertain us for the evening. We are so fortunate to get these bands for this special event. Miss Lissa and Company (Dayton, OH) will be on stage at 7:00. The Beat Daddys (Nashville, TN) will take the stage at 9:00. It can't get better than this! Check out their websites to see for yourself. www.myspace.com/misslissaco - www.beatdaddys.com - www.myspace.com/thebeatdaddys

Just wait until you see our "Juke Joint" venue. Club Vernon is the perfect Blues party place. It's got it all - Great stage, sound system, lighting, dance floor and the bar is stocked with your favorite beer. Check it out online too at www.vernonclub.com. BBQ and sides will be available. The doors at 1575 Story Avenue open at 6:30. And best of all - it's free for KBS members and only $5 for non-members. This event will happen only once. Don't miss it. It's gonna be too much fun

New Music Reviews!

Today
Mike Zito
Eclecto Groove Records EGR CD 503

I could tell you about Mike Zito playing guitar since he was an infant, played first professionally when he was 3, snuck into bars to listen to music etc- the typical blues musician bio. Instead, I would like to tell you about the music, and let you judge Mike. His new CD, "Today" is his first major record label release, but his fifth release overall. In 2007, he met Randy Chortoff of Eclecto Groove Records and within a few weeks, he had a contract.

Zito's music is polished and contemporaneous. Surely his former work was practice for this release. I listened to the cuts on the CD several times and the more I listened to them, the more they attracted me to them. There is almost a magnetism that makes one want to sing/play along with the songs. The 13 tracks on the CD are each unique and represent excellent musicianship and are recorded well.

There are electric guitar as well as acoustic guitar tunes here. Eight musicians join Zito on this CD including Mitch Kashmar on two cuts. The first cut starts out like a rock tune but then calms down into what you will swear is John Mayer singing. The third cut "Holding Out For Love" is a slower song with a reverent use of guitar that is my personal favorite on the CD. His soulful voice is a real plus to this as well as other songs, and his lyrics are meaningful. All of the songs except "Little Red Corvette" (By Prince) are Zito originals. On "Slow It Down" Zito does just that. It is a slow-cooking song that holds you just above the floor. It decries the speed of life and how he came to the revelation that he needs to slow down.

Most of the lyrics are in the first person singular and it sounds to the listener that the songs are all taken from his personal experiences-certainly feelings, which he is laying down to music (Isn't that what Blues is all about?).

This is a good CD and offers a diverse collection of modern blues songs with Zito's distinctive voice to add a little flavor to them.

The Vintage Room
The Blues Experience with Cash McCall
Dixon Landing Music 827071044227

While there appears to be little, if any, new ground being broken on this CD, "The Vintage Room: The Blues Experience, with Cash McCall" (2007, Dixon Landing Music), the recording is certainly well done and is appropriately titled as it delivers vintage Chicago blues with a bit of a contemporary lineup.

This recording stays true to the traditional spirit of Chicago blues, as well as its sound. McCall, born in Missouri in 1941 as Morris Dillison, Jr., would eventually come under the tutelage of Willie Dixon at Chess Records in Chicago as a sessions guitarist and songwriter for the likes of Muddy Waters, Howlin' Wolf and Little Milton, among others. His precise, stinging guitar is just as valuable on this CD. Adding to the energy of some of these tunes is Willie Dixon's grandson, Alex, born in 1975 on Chicago's tough south side and raised by his grandfather. The younger Dixon produced this recording and added some light-fingered piano work to several of these tunes. To punctuate the "vintage" sound, the influence of the elder Dixon is felt even further as there are three of his most well-known tunes performed here: "I Just Want to make Love to You," "I'm Ready," and Bring It On Home,"—the latter one of the best of the CD's 11 songs.

And while all the band members are skilled, it's the harmonica of Steve Bell which truly stands out. While his style is not unique, his level of skill is quite high on the charts and he can blow some low-down-'n'-dirty blues harp when the situation calls for it.

So, if you're looking for a little something "different" or "extra" in your blues music, you might want to pass on this one. However, if you truly enjoy pure, grade-A Chicago blues which stays true to the sound and spirit of the style, this will fit right into your listening rotation on a regular basis.

Bob Cox Retires from KBS Board

On July 8, 1997, my wife and I went to see Liz Pennock and Dr. Blues at the Rudyard Kipling. I had seen this duo the year before at the Chicago Blues Festival and was impressed with her 6 finger mastery of the keyboards and his slide dobro when they backed Diamond Teeth Mary. Bob Cox was the only other person to show up so we had our own private blues party. With only the five of us in the back room, we all became one, joking and singing together. Bob had just moved to Louisville and he quickly became involved with the KBS writing articles, participating at events, taking pictures and contributing to our meetings with his biting wit. He was elected to the KBS board in October 1997 just before his soul mate, Brenda Major, became president.

Bob quickly came up with a list of blues RATS (Random Ass Thoughts) for our society to consider and became our membership chairperson. Bob and Brenda collaborated on an insightful interview with Jim Rosen shortly before he died. Bob also coordinated the catering for our blues cruises and created those whimsical maps showing our itinerary. The competition for a new KBS tee shirt design was a Bob project as well as polling the membership with a questionnaire. On a few occasions he sat in for Scott Mullins for the Saturday Night Blues Party on WFPK.

We will miss his witty quips at our meetings and in the newsletters.
